

Travel information to get to the RSN

Hampton Court Palace is located next to the River Thames to the south west of London. It is within the M25 and about 6 miles from the start of the M3 and about 8 miles from the start of the M4. Look out for the brown attraction signs that direct you to Hampton Court Palace. The Royal School of Needlework is situated on the East Front of the Palace and overlooks the Formal Gardens and Long Water.

By car: Hampton Court Palace is located on the A308 and is well signposted from all the major local roads. From the M25 either take exit 10 on to the A3 and A309 or exit 12 on to the M3 and A308.

Parking: Some paid for parking is available at Hampton Court Palace. Parking is also available at Hampton Court train station and Hampton Court Green.

By train: National Rail train services run direct from London Waterloo to Hampton Court. The journey takes only 35 minutes and the palace is a five-minute walk across the bridge from the station. The train service passes through Wimbledon station, where the London Underground District Line begins. Hampton Court is in Travel Zone 6.

By bus: The following routes stop outside or near Hampton Court Palace 111, 216, 411, 461, R68, 513.

Directions within Hampton Court Palace: Make your way down the main driveway, turn left and immediate right into Tennis Court Lane. Please call into the security office, adjacent to the barrier, where you will be provided with a temporary pass. This pass is only for the purpose of visiting the Royal School of Needlework and does not allow access to other parts of the palace. A member of RSN staff will meet you there.

We look forward to welcoming you to the RSN.

