

Christening robes

Christening robes are a wonderful tradition to start or continue. We can embellish and monogram, then clean and repair afterwards, ready for the next wearer. For example, some families monogram the name of every child to wear it, so becoming a very special historical record.

Wedding veils

We can clean and repair wedding veils of any size as well as create special items such as embellished petticoats and ring cushions.

Household linens

We can monogram or add motifs to household linens (table, bed and bath) which can make a very personal present for a special occasion. We can add initials, dates or even a personal message.

The Royal School of Needlework Studio is staffed by highly skilled professional embroiderers, all graduates of the RSN. All our commissions are one-off pieces of work.

We also work on commissions for places of worship, the military, livery companies and other ceremonial requirements, as well as major public commissions.

All RSN work is hand embroidered in England. Bespoke embroidery may seem expensive, but we are creating pieces to last through many generations. We are always happy to discuss your budget and the choice of techniques to help you realise your ideas.

We would also ask for an early indication of your timescale, especially if your piece is for a special event.

How to contact us

Should you wish to discuss a possible commission, please contact us by telephone or email. If you want to talk about an existing item it is really helpful to have some images before we have the conversation.

Celebrate your pet

We can produce your pet in embroidery, from naturalistic silk shading to canvas work or even blackwork. This is a wonderful way to remember a much loved member of the family.

Creating unique embroidered pieces for you to treasure

Canvas painting

If you are a keen needleworker and want to make something unique we can hand paint a canvas for you, based on a design, drawing or photograph and select the colour palette to work the piece.

Heirlooms of the future

Whether you want to create a family tree in embroidery or a hanging in a style relevant to the period of your home, translate an artwork into embroidery, have a set of needlepoint dining chair seats or even personalised Christmas stockings, the RSN Studio can create beautiful unique pieces for your home and family.

Restoration and conservation

We can help breathe new life into fragile and distressed textiles by stabilising, netting, securing loose threads and remounting so that they can be displayed to give many more years of pleasure.

Where more specialist conservation is required we work with independent conservators, in this way you get the best of two skills: conservation and embroidery.
